CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Sarah has been a registered Child Development Home Provider for over 6 years. Sarah recently completed the qualifications to become a "C2" CDH provider with Devn Bevington as the Co-Provider. Sarah serves as a provider for all ages in her area and accepts private pay as well as Child Care Assistant families. Sarah has a play based program and is able to care for infants. Children receive regular meals throughout the day. Sarah's CDH hours are from 6:30am to 5pm Monday through Friday.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

The current evaluation report is considered a pre-inspection. Sarah has demonstrated of the years of care the ability to effectively care for children in her care and provide a safe and healthy environment for the children she cares for during the day. Sarah is organized and works closely with the parents in her program to meet the children's individual needs. Sarah has shown a willingness to be flexible in how to keep sibling groups together by applying for Exception to Policy requests when needed to keep sibling groups together.

This worker has observed the environment of the CDH to have a strong play-based approach. There are abundant activities and toys to engage the children with meaningful activities and choices depending on what their interests are. This worker has observed the CDH at lunch time and the meals are appropriate and healthy.

Sarah and Deven are knowledgeable regarding practicing Safe Sleep policy and have appropriate Pack and Plays for infants to sleep in. Sarah and Deven have expressed the importance of practicing Safe Sleep to the safety of infants.
