CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Christy has been a child care provider for over 22 years. She has been registered with the state of Iowa for a large portion of that time. Christy's background and involvement with child care goes back approximately 36 years as her mother and grandmother also provided child care. Christy loves working with two and three year old's as they can communicate with Christy and have great ideas. Christy accepts children of all ages - infant through school agers. School agers Christy cares for generally have a younger sibling enrolled in her program.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Christy has a significant background in child care. Christy brings a lot of strengths to her profession as a child care provider. Christy is organized as evidenced by her required paperwork for her business. Christy's environment is welcoming and appropriate for children of all ages. This worker noted Christy's display of children's books in the front room waiting for the new school year to start. Christy has a structured program that offers children a variety of activities and a safe place to be. Christy views her greatest strengths to be her level of patience in dealing with both children and parents alike. Christy talked about having a difficult child in care that she almost terminated, however, she worked with the parent and maintained the child in her program. Christy works hard on welcoming children and making sure they feel a sense of 'family' while in her care.
