CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Rhonda has been providing child care for approximately 37 years now. Rhonda provides care to children from aged birth to five years of age. Rhonda is available for care Mondays through Thursdays for first shift care. Rhonda currently has an exception to policy in place that allows her to exceed her approved capacity by one child through 9/2026. Rhonda provides a play based environment for children that includes a regular structure and routine. Activities are child-led and do include readiness skills for preschoolers to assist in preparing them for kindergarten. Rhonda takes children outside regularly to play or enjoy a walk.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Rhonda believes her greatest strength in working with children is her patience and that she truly loves what she does. Rhonda enjoys walking children grow and learn new skills. Rhonda maintains her paperwork in an organized manner utilizing binders and folders for important papers. Rhonda's environment is child friendly and has a large assortment of toys for children of all ages and stages. Rhonda is a participant in the CACFP food program for child care providers and works well with available resources, including Child Care Resource and Referral. Rhonda understands her registration guidelines and seeks exceptions to policy when necessary to provide for continuity of care for families.
