1. Basic Overview

Nicole has been providing registered child care for approximately four years now. Nicole accepts children aged 2 years through 12 years. Nicole provides second and third shift care for families Mondays through Fridays. Nicole provides a play based learning environment for children, offering a large assortment of age appropriate toys for all stages of development.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Nicole believes her greatest strength is that she's really good at talking to kids and helping make them feel comfortable in her care. Nicole regularly gets down on the floor and plays with children in care. Nicole utilizes a binder system for her paperwork provided by Child Care Resource and Referral, making her annual compliance visits quicker. Nicole is a participant with the CACFP food program for child care providers.
