Josie said that she has 20 years of experience caring for children and also has experience as a CNA. Josie says that she also has experience caring for children with diagnosed autism.

Josie says that she treats her childcare children "like family" and she and her husband are known to all of the children as "mimi and papa". Josie says that she does not have much turnover with the children, she usually has children from infancy, until they go to school.

Josie says that the kids enjoy playing on swings, going for walks and playing with sidewalk chalk. Josie enjoys doing arts and crafts with the children, especially for holidays and other celebrations. Josie also has a variety of toys including puzzles, cars and fidget/sensory toys.
