CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Jennifer Cash has been providing childcare in her home since 1997. The home is neat and clean. Jennifer reported that it is rare for her to have a school aged child in her care. The children are mostly aged from birth until they leave for preschool.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Jennifer stores her files neat and orderly. Jennifer had all necessary paperwork for her household and the children in her care. On this date, she was at six children in her care. She reported that six is her normal number. Jennifer allows the children to direct their play time. There are ample choices for play items in the home and these are switched out at times.

Compliance staff was able to observe interactions between Jennifer and the children. Jennifer talks to and with the children. She utilized redirection with explanation when a child was starting to negatively interact with another child.

3. Identify The Aspects That Fall Below The Standard
