LaToya provides care Mondays through Fridays and every other weekend. LaToya describes her child development home as a play based, home environment for children. LaToya reported that she has a regular routine in place for the kids, however they are not totally structured throughout the day. LaToya takes the children outside when possible to allow them to run off some energy. LaToya is not currently using her backyard as she is in the process of having a gazebo installed. The children play in the front of the home at this time.
