CHILD CARE COMPLIANT

Rule Basis and Findings of Complaint(s):

110.15(1)e If only one approved provider is present, not more than eight children are present.

Sonia stated that her daughter/co-provider, Kanya, got another full-time job, so she is no longer able to work at the childcare. Sonia said that she is working on getting her husband approved as an assistant and her other daughter approved as her co-provider.

Sonia did admit that she continued caring for the number of children allowed for a C2 provider, with the assistance of her daughter, Anteanna. Anteanna was formerly a registered childcare provider, but is not currently approved.

Sonia has been changed to a category B provider with no assistants or substitutes. Sonia is working on adding her husband as an assistant and is hoping to get her daughter approved as a co-provider so she can change back to a C2.

Sonia agrees to remain in ratio for a category B childcare home, with no assistants or substitutes, until changes are approved on her registration.

Resolution and Action Required:

Sonia agrees to operate within ratio as a category B childcare development home, with no substitutes or assistants. If Sonia is found to be over numbers or using unapproved assistants, revocation may be considered.
