CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Bob has been providing child care for over 40 years. Bob is currently only caring for his grandchildren. Bob is not accepting additional children at this time. Bob plans on phasing out of child care in the relatively near future once his grandchildren no longer require care.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Bob believes his greatest strength in working with children is the knowledge he has gained by taking ongoing trainings. This has helped Bob relate to the kids better on their level. Bob also feels he does a good job anticipating the children's needs before they even ask for help. Bob, with the assistance of his wife as an approved substitute, continues to provide consistent care to his grandchildren. Bob works hard on maintaining required paperwork and documentation for his annual visits. Bob communicates well with outside agencies such as HHS and seeks assistance when needed. Bob is a participant in the CACFP child care food program.
