CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Keyla has been a registered child development home for eight years in the Davenport area. Currently Keyla provides care to school agers, however, would consider children ages 2-12 years in age. Keyla is also attending school at this time to be a radiology technician. Keyla is maintaining her child care registration at this time to continue while she is finishing her education. Keyla recently changed to a category A home to allow her to use her basement for care as well.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Keyla did not have any children in attendance on the date of the visit, however, Keyla's home was appropriately furnished and met requirements. Keyla has been watching her current school agers for approximately 8 years now which demonstrates Keyla's commitment to child care and to families she serves. Keyla has good communication skills which is helpful in caring for children as well as working with the involved parents and caretakers.

3. Identify The Aspects That Fall Below The Standard

110.9 (1) b : Documentation from the Department confirming record checks have been completed and authorizing or limiting the person’s involvement with child care.

Keyla could not locate her completed HHS background check letter.

Keyla will contact this worker by 9/1/2025 to confirm she is in receipt of the above completed background check letter. Keyla can email at kathy.huinker@hhs.iowa.gov or text 563-949-6971 once this is received.

4. Any corrective action plans, provisional license, and safety plans-steps to get into compliance

N/A

5. Special Notes/recommendations

Keyla will keep this worker updated on her school schedule in the fall and when she is providing child care.
