CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Antoinette Hunter has been a registered Child Development Home Provider since November of 2011. Her renewal will be due in March of 2026. Antoinette accepts all ages of children into her program. She currently does not have any families she is caring for at this time. Antoinette does not transport. There are no pets in the Child Development Home.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Antoinette is an experienced provider in Child Care. She has toys and learning materials in the Child Development Home for the children to engage with in activities. Children in her care receive regular meals and snacks as appropriate. Antoinette uses redirection and Time Out as her main interventions for behaviors. Corporal punishment is not used in the CDH. Antoinette has completed Safe Sleep training and would implement the practice in her Child Development Home when she has infants. There is a grass area in the backyard children can play in.
