CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Stephanie has been a registered Child Development Home Provider for over 6 years. Stephanie provides care for children of all ages. Stephanie is IQ4K certified and is working to get certified on the 2nd level. Stephanie's program includes play-based approaches and structured time to do activities such as arts and crafts. Stephanie participates with the food program and meets with the case worker as needed.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Stephanie is an experienced provider and is adept at caring for children of all ages. There is an appropriate fenced outside area for the children to play. Stephanie employs "play to learn" and "free play" in her Child Development Home. She is current on her required training and continues to work with the Child Care Resource and Referral Worker to advance her skills through available trainings and programs. Stephanie regularly communicates with parents for the needs of their children.
