CHILD CARE ANNUAL EVALUATION

1. Basic Overview

Guadalupe has been a registered child care provider since 2017. Guadalupe provides care for infants through school agers for all three shifts. Guadalupe provides a play based environment for children with learning activities throw in regularly. Guadalupe is currently full and not accepting additional enrollments at this time.

2. Identify Observed Strengths Of The Program

Guadalupe believes her greatest strength in working with children is her patience level. Guadalupe is patient in dealing with children's often challenging behaviors. Guadalupe has had the same families or have known them all for a long period of time. This shows that parents are pleased with the care their children are receiving from Guadalupe. Guadalupe is an organized individual, maintaining her paperwork in an organized fashion which makes finding compliance items a quick and easy process each year. Guadalupe uses her available resources, specifically Child Care Resource and Referral.
